

TLM

Terminology & Localization Manager

Your central terminology management.

www.ontolis.com

DEFINITION

TLM is a multilingual terminology management tool with an integrated voting process. The structure of an terminological entry is concept-oriented and term-autonomous.

FEATURES & BENEFITS

Central terminology management for all divisions

Concept-oriented and term-autonomous management

Configurable and extendable entry structure

Terminological entries are displayed in tree structures

Describing translation routes

Concept map describes and visualizes semantic relations

Duplicate check to avoid redundant data

Voting process options: vote, comment, suggest

Well-engineered CMS-features, such as version and release control

Configurable user management: roles, permissions ...

Import and export in popular formats

Using terminology in external systems and tools

Base for finding outdated terms in CDP

Direct connection to PME (product model) available